

Environmental Humanities (EHUM) Course Planning

Fall 1	Spring 1	Summer 1	Fall 2	Spring 2
EHUM 6804 Tertulia (1 cr.)	EHUM 6804 Tertulia (1 cr.)	EHUM 6103 Ecology of Residency (3 cr.) mid-July (credit for Fall)	EHUM 6804 Tertulia (1 cr.)	EHUM 6970 - Thesis/Project Research: Masters (1-6 cr.)
EHUM 6101 - Foundations of EH (3 cr.)	EHUM 6102 - Field Methods in EHUM (3 cr.)		(Ecology of Residency)	Elective (3 cr.)
EHUM 6105 EHUM Writing Seminar Art, Advocacy and Landscape (3 cr.)	Elective (3 cr.)		Elective (3 cr.)	Elective? (3 cr.)
Elective (3 cr.)	Elective (3 cr.)		Elective (3 cr.)

Students must complete a minimum of 33 semester hours, of which a minimum of 27 hours is represented by coursework.

- Thesis option: minimum of 27 hours of course work and six hours of thesis credit.
- Project option: at least 27 hours of course work and a creative or applied project. A minimum of six credit hours is awarded for the project. Students who select the project option are encouraged to combine internship experiences with their project.
- Non-thesis option: minimum of 30 semester hours of course work and three credit hours of independent study or HUM 6970 which reflect the student's preparation for a final comprehensive examination administered by the supervisory committee.

Five courses must be successfully completed by all students:

1. Humanities 6101 Foundations of Environmental Humanities
2. Humanities 6102 Field Methods in Environmental Humanities
3. Humanities 6103 Ecology of Residency
4. Humanities 6804 Tertulia
5. Humanities 6105 Environmental Humanities Writing Seminar.

The primary distinction between the two Master's degrees offered by the Program is that the Master of Arts degree requires a "standard proficiency" in an approved language, while the Masters of Science requires students to complete two research methods courses approved by the student's committee.